

KEITH ANDREWS ELECTRICAL APPRENTICESHIP SCHOLARSHIP FUND CRITERIA

This non-renewable scholarship was established in memory Keith Andrews of Strong, Arkansas. Keith was a graduate of El Dorado High School and the South Arkansas Electrical Apprenticeship School, both of El Dorado, AR. The scholarship is awarded annually to a graduate of El Dorado High School or a graduate from another public Union County Arkansas high school.

Applicants must be must be working for an electrical company or service, with a mentor who supervises them and signs off on their hours, to apply to the South Arkansas Electrical Apprenticeship School hosted by South Arkansas College, El Dorado, AR.

Eligibility Criteria:

A recipient must be a graduate from El Dorado High School or a graduate from another public Union County Arkansas high school. The criteria to be used by the Advisory Committee in the recommendation of recipients shall include but not be limited to financial need, academic merit, currently employed by an electrical company and plan to the South Arkansas Electrical Apprenticeship School hosted by the South Arkansas College.

- ◆ Must meet all requirements for the South Arkansas Electrical Apprenticeship School listed on the SouthArk College Corporate Education website. To receive more information, please contact SouthArk's Corporate Education office at (870) 864-7192 or ce@southark.edu.

Online Application must include:

- ◆ Completed and submitted online Scholarship application.
- ◆ Applicant must submit a letter stating they are currently employed by an electrical company or service while taking the South Arkansas Electrical Apprenticeship School course and that you will receive on the job training while attending this course.
- ◆ Must provide El Dorado High School or other public Union County Arkansas high school diploma.

Apply: Click here to submit online application.

<https://www.grantinterface.com/Home/Logon?urlkey=union>