

Robert C. Compton Union County Bar Association Fund

This fund was established in 2004 to honor Robert C. Compton's distinguished career as an attorney, and to provide law school tuition to students who graduated from high school in Union County.

Eligibility Criteria

Selection of scholarship recipients will apply to students who have graduated from high school in Union County, Arkansas. Priority will be given to students attending law schools in Arkansas, but students attending law schools in other states may apply. The criteria to be used by the Advisory Committee in selection of scholarship recipients shall include, but not be limited to: financial need and academic performance.

Application Information

The application to this scholarship will be accepted via the UCCF online scholarship application portal in the late spring of each year. The scholarships will be awarded and announced in July of each year, and scholarships will be paid to the law school(s) in August of each year.

Application Requirements

- ◆ Completed on-line application
- ◆ A cumulative college or law school transcript through the most recent term (an official transcript will be required if scholarship is awarded).
- ◆ Financial Information Summary. The summary should include a brief explanation of the applicant's household income and expenses.
